Ochre

#D49A35

Lanterns, candlelight, and golden details.

Bone

#E8DFC9

Stone, moonlight, paper, and soft neutral space.

TRY THIS

Choose one dominant dark color, one warm glow color, and one muted accent. Repeat them across the page for a calm, cohesive result.

THREE KINDS OF HAUNTED LIGHT

Use contrast and repetition to create atmosphere without complicated blending.

1

Moonlight

Start with pale blue. Deepen the edges with indigo, but leave a narrow white highlight where the moon touches stone, glass, or fabric.

2

Candlelight

Build a small golden center around the flame. Add amber next, then a soft brown edge. Keep nearby objects warmer than the rest of the room.

3

Glowing pumpkins

Leave the center of the carved opening nearly white. Add yellow around it, then orange toward the outer pumpkin. Use brown only in the deepest grooves.

Your palette does not need to be realistic - it only needs to feel intentional.

The Moonlit Ballroom

The Forgotten Conservatory

The Library Behind the Secret Door

The Raven at the Cemetery Gate

The Candlelit Attic
